Chairman's Message

Some few days ago your Club Committee was re-elected to office for the ensuing year unopposed.

I speak on behalf of all members of that Committee when I say that it is at once an honour and a privilege to be once again entrusted with the organization and administration of this Club which we all hold in such high esteem, and whose future is so important to us.

It is no easy task to accept the responsibility for the function of such an entity, for our Club proper is not our real estate, our bricks and mortar, our furniture and fittings. It is the two thousand seven hundred members who go to make up our numbers.

Each one of these is a separate personality, with his own likes and dislikes and his own ideas on just what he wants from his Club.

It is the job of the Committee to see that the Club is run along lines which cater for the majority of tastes. In short, what we would like to do is achieve the impossible and "please all the people all the time."

Naturally enough, that is something I cannot promise, but I can—and do—assure all members that the Committee and myself will do our utmost to do the next best thing. That is, please most of the people most of the time."

CLUB NEWS & VIEWS

some more news from you in the near future.

CLUB'S OLYMPIC REPRESENTATIVE

How many members know that we have at least one of our numbers who is going away to represent Australia at the Olympic Games? The member concerned is A. H. Livingstone, who is to represent us in the Kayak Division, those tricky little canoe-type vessels which require some very skilful handling.

Congratulations to you, Mr. Livingstone. All members wish you the very best of luck at the Games, and hope that you may join that very select band of sportsmen who display the coveted Games Gold Medal in their trophy cases.

NICE GESTURE

How many of us take the time and the trouble to carry out those little gestures of appreciation which are so much admired by our friends? Well, we know of one of our members who does. He is Dr. Hyam Owen, and it happened like this.

Ten years ago last month two members proposed and seconded Hyam for membership of Tattersall's. They were Jim Cromwell and Les Harrison, and Hyam was so appreciative of the gesture which made him a member of our Club that he has made it a point to take these two to lunch on the anniversary of his membership ever since.

Lunch last month was a special one, for it marked Hyam's tenth year of membership.

CLUB MEMBERS HELP EQUESTRIANS

It was really good news for all horse lovers when word came through recently that our Australian equestrian team had done such wonders in England and, in consequence, looked like starting favourites for the Olympic Games. It is also good news for Tattersall's that several of our members were instrumental in helping to get the team away. The members concerned are John Hickey, our Chairman, Les Tidmarsh, Sam Hordern, Jim Barnes, M. V. Point, and Bill Longworth, all of whom acted either on the Equestrian Federation itself or the committee for raising funds for the team's expenses.

To these members we offer our congratulations on helping and being associated with a group of fine horsemen who have already brought fame to our country, and look certain to bring much more.

NEWS FROM LES TIDMARSH

In the last issue of T.C.M. we reported that Les and wife "Red" had set off on a world tour. Since then Committeeman Alf Collins has had a postcard from Les—and how better to let you know how he is getting on than by quoting his own words? Here they are:

"We are in Paris, a very delightful and expensive city. For instance, Scotch and soda 15/- a nip. Just as well I had a couple in Honolulu and New York.

"Went to Acqueduct races and won 160 dollars—a nice course, fairly small, but with a good view. I was in a box (private), and was very well looked after by an owner who had two horses running. He had no luck with them, but had the second horse won the last, I would have been another 600 dollars up.

"We are leaving for Spain tomorrow.

"Remember me to all the boys at the Club, and all the best from 'Red' and myself."

Glad to hear you're having a good time, Les. We'll be looking forward to

COMPLIMENT TO CLUB

It is always pleasing to receive a compliment, and we got a very nice one last month in connection with our Club Annual Report and Balance Sheet. As members know, it carried an attractive and most striking cover of four of our Club emblem horses done in pastel colours against a black background. We received many complimentary comments about it, but, to cap them all off, Ken Murray, well-known Sydney publisher, rang and asked whether it would be possible for him to use the design. He didn't want it for one of his publications, but for a gigantic plaque which he intends to have done in bronze and other metals and place above a huge fireplace in the new hotel he is having built at Kosciusko.

Royal Message for Club

As many members know, Bill Allen left our shores a short time ago with his wife on an overseas tour. While in England, Bill and Mrs. Allen were invited to a garden party at Buckingham Palace. There they were privileged to meet the Duke of Edinburgh. During the course of his conversation with the Duke, Bill happened to mention that he was a member of Tattersall's Club. The Duke immediately became interested, for, as many members will recall, he himself was an honorary member of our Club when he was out here on a visit during wartime; but then, of course, as Prince Philip of Greece. He still remembers the Club well, and asked Bill to pass on a message of greeting to its members. He also particularly asked to be remembered to those whom he met whilst here.

It is indeed an honour to receive this Royal message, and we are proud to pass it on to members in the pages of T.C.M.

HARRY LESNIE ILL — BETTER

Harry Lesnie gave his many friends something of a jolt last month when he suffered a mild collapse on the second floor. However, it was nothing of a serious nature, as Harry convincingly proved by turning up hale and hearty and none the worse for wear the next day to carry out his usual lunchtime practice of having a couple of "bob" in the machine and a modest drink or two with his cronies. In fact, Harry, we're wondering whether it was all to get a little sympathy. But seriously, Harry, all your friends are glad that you are your old self again.

o o o

A RECORD TO BEAT

Last issue we made mention of multi-generation membership of the Lesnie family. Well, here are some more interesting facts we want to add to the paragraph.

Grandson David of the Lesnie family is also grandson of the Silk family, whose membership is well known. Izzy Silk is David's grandfather and, of course, Lou Silk is his uncle. And, just by way of good measure, Ray Fuller is also David's uncle.

Well, we've had some impressive records of family membership so far, but we think this surely must be the record. What about it?

JOHN GOULSTON ENTERTAINS

It turned out to be a most successful evening when John Goulston entertained some 30 people at a special dinner in the Club dining room early last month. The occasion for the celebration was John's daughter's birthday, and John's present to her was a pair of diamond earrings, which were greatly admired by all present. The very flattering part of the evening as far as the Club is concerned was the many congratulations John received on the Club catering. Practically all those present asked him to pass on their thanks for a very well conducted party.

"CAPTAIN" KENNEDY

If you're a friend of Bruce Kennedy's these days, you've got to be prepared for the conversation to turn nautical every now and again, for Bruce has just acquired himself a boat. He has it parked (sorry, Bruce, moored) up at Pittwater, and says that if any of his friends are looking for him on week-ends they head for the dirtiest-looking grease monkey on the water and that'll be him. Bruce is doing the whole thing up from stem to stern, refurbishing and refurnishing for his "maiden" voyage on her in five or six weeks.

AUSTRALIAN JOCKEYS RIDE PLACES IN DERBY

Although neither of the two Australian jockeys, Scobie Breasley and Ron Hutchinson, were able to bring in the winner in the famous English classic, the Derby, they did the next best thing, and rode the two places. Scobie Breasley was second on Alcaeus and Ron Hutchinson third on Kythnos. The race was won by St. Paddy, ridden by crack English jockey, Lester Piggott, who rode a classic race to take out first money. He brought St. Paddy out of the ruck about two furlongs from the post, and, though pressed by Alcaeus and Kythnos, retained his lead down the straight, and went past the post going away.

Breasley almost missed his mount on Alcaeus. He had suffered with 'flu throughout the night, and was running a temperature. In consequence, he was late arriving at the course, and Alcaeus' trainer had already announced that Tommy Gosling would ride the horse when Scobie got there.

The winning horse, St. Paddy, is owned by Sir Victor Sassoon, and is trained by well-known English trainer Paddy Prendergast. St. Paddy was sired by Aureole, who is owned by Her Majesty the Queen.

A SON TO Mrs. KENNEDY

Hearty congratulations to Trainer Tom Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy on the birth of a 7½ lb. bonnie, bouncing, baby boy.

Mrs. Kennedy increased the family late last month, and Tom is like a horse with two tails.

CONGRATULATIONS TO W. N. PARRY-OKEDEN

Congratulations go to member W. N. Parry-Okeden, A.J.C. Secretary, who announced late last month that he is to take over an important post with the R.A.S. He is to succeed Lieutenant-General Sir Frank Berryman as Director of that body. Mr. Parry-Okeden has been with the A.J.C. since 1946, and has many friends in the racing world. All members of the Club wish you well in your new post, Mr. Parry-Okeden.

All members of our last year's Committee have been returned to office this year unopposed. This is a great compliment to those who guided our destinies so ably during the last twelve months. It is a vote of confidence in their ability, and a fitting tribute to the work, loyalty, and time they have given to the Club on our behalf. For the ensuing year we owe them our loyalty and our support, so that they may carry the Club through yet another successful twelve-month period.

OLYMPIC SQUAD TRAINS IN POOL

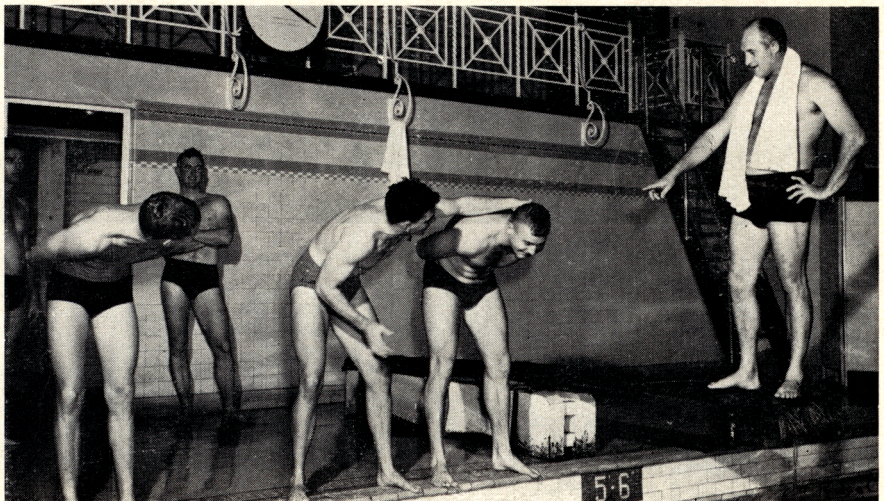

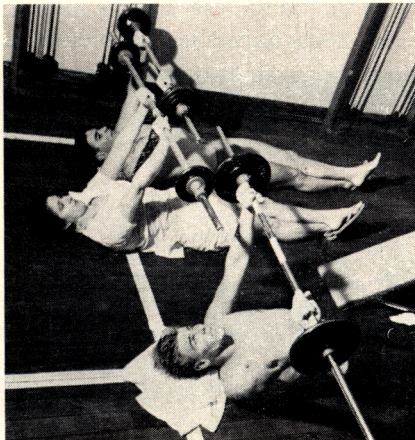

Once again this year we have made our Pool and Athletic Department available to the Olympic Swimming Squad. It is a real pleasure to be able to assist in this small way such a fine group of sportsmen and sportswomen, to whom we wish every success at the Olympics.

POLO PRINCE KEPT THE "JAMES BARNES" IN THE FAMILY, PO

The Club was honoured by the company of senior officers from the United States cruiser squadron, which had come out here for the Coral Sea Celebrations, at its race meeting in May. They were Rear Admiral F. T. Becton, Captain Kauffman, and Captain Nicholson. During an excellent day's racing they saw well-known Randwick trainer, Stan Lamond, fulfil a long-sought ambition when he won the James Barnes Plate with Polo Prince.

Stan has been a Club member for 38 years, and has trained for members of the Barnes family for many years.

The Plate was named for the late Mr. James Barnes, a Committeeman of Tattersall's for 40 years and Chairman for 13 successive years.

Our U.S. guests enjoyed their day immensely. Admiral Becton expressed his appreciation of our invitation during lunch, and admitted that racing was his number one recreation. His Chief of Staff, Captain Nicholson, also expressed his pleasure at being with us, and said it was one of the most enjoyable days of his trip out here. Together with Captain Kauffman, who is commanding officer of the U.S.S. Helena, they did some modest punting, but, unfortunately, with mixed results.

The day's racing turned out to be full of interest, especially the James Barnes Plate.

It was a "natural" that a good race should have been named for Mr. Barnes. He was Chairman and largely instrumental in the transfer of premises from Pitt Street to their present palatial site in Elizabeth Street. No man ever worked harder for his Club than Mr. Barnes, and he was only satisfied when he saw it settle down to steady success in the new quarters and realized true happiness.

With a courageous and determined finish, Polo Prince won this year's James Barnes Plate, and the performance was a tribute to an outstanding Club Chairman.

How appropriate it was that Polo Prince should win the race! He is raced by Mrs. A. Barnes, whose husband, Bill, is a grandson of ex-Chairman Jim Barnes. Mrs. Barnes shares Polo Prince with her father, Mr. W. J. Bradshaw, a prominent Sydney master builder, who, by the way, is an applicant for Club membership.

They gave 1,100 guineas for him as a yearling, and his racing has been an example of true honesty and hard striving. He has had two wins, two close seconds, and a third for his last five starts.

It was only sheer gameness on

Polo Prince scores a James Barnes Plate success in the Tattersall's Club's main event at Randwick on May 14, and keeps the Barnes flag flying.

t Club May Meeting

ULAR RANDWICK WIN FOR STAN LAMOND

the part of Polo Prince which enabled him to win narrowly from Compass and Tranquette in this year's James Barnes. Stan Lamond hopes to have him in Brisbane in July for the Doomben Cup, a race he won years ago with Cooranga and, more recently, with Prince Delville.

Mr. Lamond's nearest approach to success in the James Barnes Plate in the past was a second in 1956 with First Century, whom he trained for the late Mr. Pat Osborne, owner of famous racing mare Valicare, and for many years a member of the A.J.C. Committee.

Another friendly tie for Stan was that the late Mr. Barnes nominated Mr. Pat Osborne when he first entered the A.J.C. as a member, and also as a Tattersall's Club member.

The late Bayly Payten was Valicare's trainer but, on his death, Mr. Osborne transferred his racing string to Stan Lamond, and nothing gave the old-associated friends more joy than a win in the all-red for Mrs. Osborne or all-green for Mr. Osborne, or for Mr. Barnes' colours—all white.

On James Barnes Stakes day, Tattersall's Club had the distinction of entertaining members and patrons with a first run of the season for a sprinter who ranks top among all Australian speedsters. This was Fine and Dandy.

He won seven races at two years last season, in N.S.W., Vic. and Queensland, and in this, his first reappearance for nearly a year, he gained an impressive success in the Flying Handicap.

Fine and Dandy is raced by Club members Messrs. W. F. and F. H. Moses, and trained by Harry Plant, also a Club member of long standing. The horse is being prepared for the two big Queensland sprints, the Stradbroke and Doomben Ten, in June and July. If he succeeds in these, he will go to America to race, and the writer's opinion is that he will go on record there as a world-beater.

Fine and Dandy easily beating Great Blaze in the Flying Handicap at the Club's meeting on May 14.

NOEL HOUGH WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Big news in the Bowling Section last month was the final of the Club Championship. In this important event popular Noel Hough came from behind to defeat Frank Geddes. We also had a pleasant day when three rinks attended the Ashfield Bowling Club as their guests to play in the Ashfield Trophy. All bowlers were looking forward to our Annual Day at Waverley. Unfortunately, this was not to be, as rain washed the event out.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

At Double Bay, on May 12, the final of the Tattersall's Bowling Club's Championship was played between Noel Hough and Frank Geddes. Our new Champion is Noel Hough, who beat Frank by 31 to 28.

Congratulations, Noel, on a good game well played, as at one stage Noel trailed by 21 to 13.

Commiserations, Frank. It certainly was disappointing to get to the final and be lying game with three shots and be penalised by a good bowl which trailed the jack to your opponent.

Our Triples Trophy on the 12th May was won by Len Plasto, Izzie Silk, and John Trainor.

Izzie soon returned to the winners' list, as it was his first game since his return from Japan.

A nice gesture by John Trainor, in the form of drinks for the bar, was appreciated by all present.

On May 5 the trophy winners were Morrie Watson and Vince Kirby.

New members in Jack Neil and Peter McGrath, of billiards fame, were welcomed to the Bowling Section by President Gordon.

We were also hosts to Rev. Lieut.-Commander Bob Trett at afternoon tea. Rev. Bob (who says his name is spelt with only one "o") is from the U.S.S. Canberra.

ASHFIELD TROPHY

On May 10 three rinks were once again the guests of the Ashfield Bowling Club to participate in the Ashfield Trophy. Results were:—

Tattersall's (A. Buckle, L. Burke, J. Pick, K. Ranger), 30; Ashfield (Messenger, O'Keefe, Dail, Payne), 11.

Tattersall's (C. Rose, C. Cohen, F. Geddes, G. Booth), 17; Ashfield (Tost, C. Fahy, Armit, Murden), 10.

Tattersall's (F. Empson, K. Williams, N. Hough, J. Kellaway), 18; Ashfield (Goodwin, Barril, Lynch, W. Keil), 20.

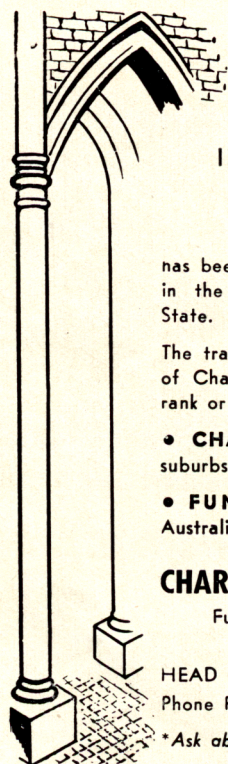

Total: Tattersall's 65, Ashfield 41.

A margin of 24 shots puts Tattersall's in second position and, as the last four play off for the trophy, we are looking forward to the semi-finals to be played at Ashfield in the near future.

WAVERLEY ANNUAL DAY

A disappointed President in Gordon Booth saw the cancellation of our Annual Day at Waverley, set down for the 21st May. Rain washed out what promised to be a great day, as President Gordon went to no end of trouble to get all the big shots in the Bowling Section to put their names on the board in what promised to be a test of strength.

Ball Leads in "Native Son"

Success in the monthly Point Score and an almost unbeatable lead in the season's "Native Son" Point Score by Alan Ball, and the smallest field for many years provided pool fans with plenty of gossip last month.

Ball has had a most successful season, and his win and three seconds in the last five races have given him a seemingly unassailable lead in the "Native Son" series, in which he now leads by 16 points from Col Bowes and Sid Kay, with only about two months to complete the season.

One of the best races of the season was the clash in a final between Club Champion David Emanuel and Alan Ball, in receipt of two seconds.

Dave won by a finger-nail, and broke his time by 1.4 seconds with a slashing swim of 18.6, after winning his heat in 18.8. Just as well Alan was not that finger-nail further ahead, or he would have lost a second as well.

After Ball, Col Bowes and Sid Kay in the "Native Son" comes Dr. Les Bear, who recently missed a couple of events, his first absence for some years, four points away, with Norm Rogers another one and a half away, two ahead of the early leader, John Dexter, who has been off the scene for seven races.

The Bowes boys had a big day on 28th April, when they brought off the finals double over 40 yards.

Lowest field for many a day was that of only 16 in the Brace Relay Handicap on 17th May. The reason was not any lessening of the popularity of the racing, but the school holidays, which had drawn all the proud poppas away from Sydney with their families.

Amongst those in this category were Leigh and Col Bowes, Jim Comans, Bob Harris, Ralph Corrick, and a host of others.

It's not often we see "Bobby" Adams in the pool on race days and, since starting in the second race of the season, he hadn't been on deck until he made a welcome reappearance on 3rd May in a Brace Relay, in which he showed that he had not lost his speed by partnering John Utz to victory.

Brace Relays were rather exciting during the month, and a bright spot was the drawing of scratch men in the heats. Merv Finlay and Bill Kendall drew together and won a heat in 40.7, whilst Dave Emanuel and Norm Rogers won another in the speedy time of 39.8, probably the best combination since the Club opened.

A notable occasion of the month was a presentation of a travelling clock by the boys to Club Committeeman Geoff Eastment on 10th May, just before he left for his trip abroad.

Swimming Club Secretary Jack Dexter did the honours with a few well-chosen words of appreciation to Geoff, who responded in like manner to the applause of a good gathering of pool habitués. Good trip, Geoff!

Congratulations go to Tom Hellmrich on his first outright win in a final to add to a previous dead-heat for first, and to Clive Gorland on his first victory of the season, in a Brace Relay.

Clive, by the way, is going well in the current Point Score, being level with Harry Bate in third place behind John Brice and Alan Ball.

It's good to see Jerry Creer on the Third Floor again, looking rather well after his very serious illness. Maybe that trip to his old hunting ground, Lord Howe Island, had something to do with it.

There's good news, too, about popular George Goldie, who is much better, and, though still in hospital, is sitting up and taking notice and looking forward to his first trip to the pool.

Best swims of the month were:—18.6

New Member Wins May "Blitz" Annual Tournaments Under Way

This month has been an interesting one for Billiards and Snooker enthusiasts. First of all, the May "Blitz" Tournament provided a somewhat unexpected but very popular result when a comparatively new member, Ken McDonald, ran out the winner. Close on his heels to fill the minor placings were George Mousally, C. Brelaz, and N. C. White. Secondly, the Annual Billiards and Snooker Tournaments got under way, and though at the time of going to press only one day's play had been completed, both sections promise to provide a great deal of interest.

The May "Blitz" Tournament was held on Tuesday, 17th May, and some excellent games were played. The winner, Ken McDonald, seemed to coast through his games, and defeated some very strong players in Vince Kirby, John Peoples, and the runner-up, popular George Mousally. As a result, handicappers have noted that quite a few changes will have to be made for the next fixture.

This is scheduled for TUESDAY, 21st JUNE, at 7.30 p.m.

We were very pleased indeed to welcome three new players to T.B.C. this month. They are Hans Robertson, Lou Levi, and Alan Gordon. It is a pleasure to have them with us, and we're sure they will enjoy our activities.

Lou Levi met Hans Robertson in the "Blitz" and, with his handicap, Lou slipped well away and, though Hans made a very good effort to reduce the gap, he could make no impression on the redoubtable Lou, who went from victory to victory to win his round.

Claude Brelaz played excellently to reach the semi-final, and beat Norm White in a play-off for third and fourth places.

Actual results were:—K. D. McDonald, 1; G. J. Mousally, 2; C. Brelaz, 3; and N. C. White, 4.

NOMINATIONS FOR FUTURE EVENTS

We would like to take this opportunity to advise all members that they will be notified by letter in future of all Billiards and Snooker events. This will save any possibility of confusion, and ensure that everyone knows of activities as far in advance as possible.

INSTRUCTION SERIES

Your Committee is still working on these instruction series, but, as expected at this early stage of negotiations, nothing has been finalised as yet. However, things are progressing very satisfactorily, and we hope to be able to advise members of something definite very shortly.

SNOOKER AND BILLIARDS LITERATURE

We are very happy to report that we have obtained some very fine publications on both Billiards and Snooker. These are available to members at cost, and if you would like to purchase any of the books, just ask one of your Committeemen, who will arrange the purchase for you.

ANNUAL TOURNAMENTS

It is evident that there is more than ordinary interest this year in the annual Snooker and Billiards events. This is borne out by the fact that approximately 120 players have nominated for the Snooker, and some 40 for the Billiards.

This augurs well for a very successful "season," and we are all looking forward to seeing some interesting matches played, and some real "drama" as the finals are approached.

Because of the Magazine deadline date we are, unfortunately, unable to report more than the first day's play in both tournaments in this issue, but here they are.

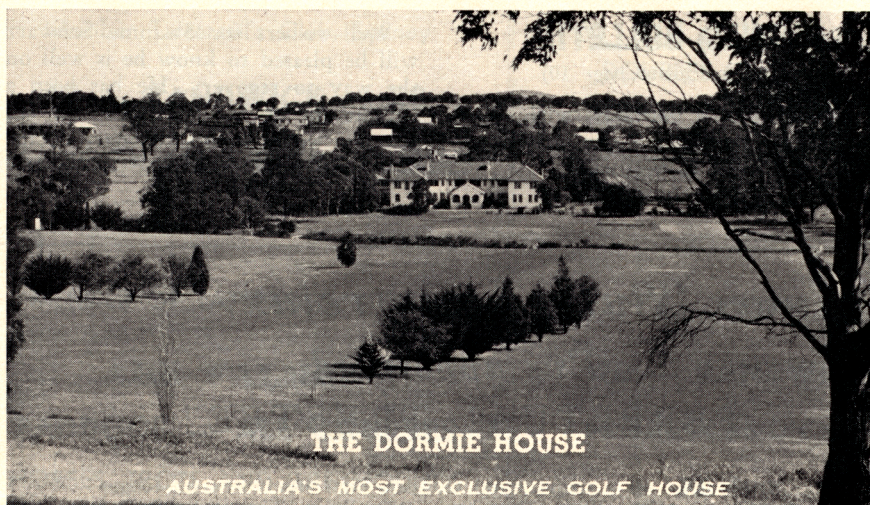

The opening game in the Billiards created some great interest, when Ken Ranger played Eric Westoff. Ken had too many guns for Eric, however, and went on to win by 33.

In Snooker, two games were played and, in the first, that evergreen stylist, Les Haigh, had quite a battle with Norm Plomley. As we all know only too well, Norm is a very hard man to toss, but Les managed to run out the winner by some 16 points.

In the second game, Lou Levi downed T.B.C. Committeeman Peter McGrath by 10 points. Commenting on his match, Peter said: "Well, now I know that Lou is no longer a maiden performer."

Results were—Billiards: Ken Ranger (250) defeated Eric Westhoff (217). Snooker: L. J. Haigh (100) defeated N. R. Plomley (84); L. Levi (98) defeated P. W. McGrath (88).
